April 5. 1892

Dear Thurber.

Of course keep the specimens. That is always the rule. You see? mounted, or lettered them.

Here is a green grass which I meant to examine but no time yet. I have now 3 such specimens in Hall's Pharbitis Nissa. But no indications of sheath. Don't look American. What can it be?

Thanks. I have now Bluets of Louisiana

Ever Yours